DETAILED ACTION

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on January 24, 2005 has been entered but are deemed moot because of Restrictions Request below.

2. Claims 1-28 are canceled. Claims 29-49 are newly added. The pending claims are 29-49.

Election/Restrictions

3. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even through the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143). Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 29-33, drawn to a computer implemented method for extracting document and storing document, which is database file maintenance, classified in class 707, subclass 200.

- II. Claims 34-43, drawn to system and method for converting spoken words to data descriptive of file contents and storing retrieving accessing identifying the file, which is converting spoken words (speech or voice data) into different data format application, classified in class 704, subclass 270.
 - III. Claims 44-49, drawn to a system for data extracting from image and storing image data and retrieving image data, which is application of database and data structure for image data, classified in class 707, subclass 104.1.
4. The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons: Inventions I, II and III are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instance case, invention I can be used for extracting document and storing document, which is database file maintenance. Invention II can be used for converting spoken words to data descriptive of file contents and storing retrieving accessing identifying the file, which is converting spoken words (speech or voice data) into different data format application. Invention III can be used for data extracting from image and storing image data and retrieving image data, which is application of database and data structure for image data. See MPEP 806.05(d).

5. Because these inventions are distinct for reasons given above and have acquired separate status in the art as shown their different classification, restriction for examination purpose as indicated is proper.

6. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

7. Applicants are advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even through the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

8. Applicants is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to be non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48 (b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a petition under 37 CFR 1.48 (b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17 (i).
